

Тестовые вопросы курса
"SECURITY OFFICER"

Who is responsible for completing the DoS on behalf of the ship?
Information about your ship's security arrangements and procedures is stored electronically. Which of these measures will help safeguard it from potential threats?
Which of these statements about drug smugglers modes of operating is true?
Which of these actions should you take if your ship is successfully boarded by armed pirates?
Which of these tasks is performed as part of the SSA?
Who is responsible for ensuring your ship completes a security assessment?
What type of bomb search should you conduct to avoid panic when the credibility of the threat is in doubt and you don't want to disrupt ship business?
If drugs are discovered onboard your ship:
If drugs or suspected drugs are found onboard your ship, follow the five Cs. Confirm, Clear, Cordon, Control and:
Which type of equipment can be used to detect explosives?
Only search vehicle compartments where you suspect objects may be hidden.
Which of this Information must be included in a piracy attack alert?
Ship Security Plans all look the same.
The purpose of profiling is to:
During a profiling Interview the service man questioning starts to act suspiciously. He is:
Which of these types of information is considered sensitive?
The Declaration of Security:
A Ship Security Assessment is integral to the creation of your ship's security plan.
Which statement about IED's is true?
What is the purpose of the Ship Security Plan?
The process of learning involves doing, reflecting, linking and:
When handling drugs:
The first step in completing an SSA is to:
Which of these procedures should crew follow when conducting a search?
Which of these statements about drug smuggling is true?
Which of these actions should crew take if a suspicious object that may be a bomb is located during a search?
Your ship is berthed at a port in Brazil that is frequently used for drug smuggling. Which of these measures is it appropriate to implement?
The best way to prevent stowaways from boarding your ship is to:
Which of these statements about profiling is correct?
Which type of profiling Is used to obtain information about rival companies and their employees?
Which Information should be included In your search plan?
What are the three tasks of a profiler?
Which of these are indications that a parcel is suspicious?
Which of these are indicators that an individual may be a drug smuggler?
Records relating to breaches of security and changes in security level must be secured against unauthorised access and available for review by contracting governments.
The best way to identify an IED is to: